

Overview

Leadership Institute is a premier executive education program designed for directors and senior managers seeking to strengthen their strategic leadership capabilities. This exclusive, three-month experience goes beyond individual development by equipping participants with the critical skills needed to lead high-performing teams and drive meaningful impact within their company.

Audience

This program is designed for mid- to senior-level leaders who play a key role in talent development and ensuring their teams contribute to the organization's strategic direction.

Format

Hybrid: Two 2-day virtual sessions and a 4-day in-person residency in Cleveland, OH

- World-class instructors
- Engagement & networking in a small cohort

- One-on-one coaching
- 360 Evaluation
- Customized Action Plans

About

This program is offered annually each spring. Leadership Institute is facilitated by Case Western Reserve University's (CWRU) Weatherhead School of Management, giving participants access to world-class faculty and resources.

The first two sessions of the 2026 program take place virtually March 25 & 26, and May 6 & 7, followed by a 4-day in-person residency June 15 - 18 on CWRU's beautiful campus in Cleveland, Ohio.

Registration includes all coursework, materials, instruction, coaching, and evaluation as well as in-person meals, evening activities, and in-city transportation. Travel to Cleveland and lodging are not included.

WiM members receive $2,000 discount on enrollment. Discounted rates for lodging are available.

For more information, visit: www.wimef.org/leadership-institute

Coursework

- Visionary leadership competencies
- Leadership and power dynamics
- Emotional intelligence at scale
- Negotiation across levels
- Strategy execution, change leadership
- Communicating with impact and storytelling through numbers

Made possible with generous support from

