Leading vs. Managing:
Are you headed somewhere that people will follow?

Overview

This thought-provoking session challenges leaders to center their leadership style on connecting and engaging their team members to fully unlock their potential.

Course Highlights

- Idenifying key differences betwen management and leadership.
- Ways to shift focus from processes to results.
- Recognizing the characteristics and core competencies of a leader.
- What are leadership lessons we have learned from our own mentors and are we transferring them on to our future leaders?

Takeaways

- Each attendee will create an action plan that will help ensure implementation and accountability.